

“The Black Watch Band and Pipes”

11/13/63

16mm, sof, "B" wind, Ekta. B, A&B roll. 503' from first action frame.

Source:

Producer: Naval Photographic Center, 1211-64.

Photographers: Atkins-Knudsen

Coverage of a special performance by members of the Black Watch Band, a Scottish regiment on tour in the United States. A number of area school children were invited to the South Lawn to witness the performance.

Sound is synced to remarks and the performance.

Shot List

- 0'- Sequence of shots of the performers and the audience on the South Lawn.
- 14'- Caroline Kennedy and John F. Kennedy, Jr., watch the preliminaries from the White House balcony.
- 16'- Shots of various members of the Black Watch.
- 20'- Title frame.
- 30'- President John F. Kennedy and First Lady Jacqueline Kennedy walk across the South Lawn to meet Major Wingate Gray, leader of the Black Watch.
- 50'- President Kennedy makes impromptu remarks of welcome. (No printed text in the Public Papers.)
- 146'- Major Gray responds in kind and then presents President Kennedy with an officer's dirk.
- 180'- Caroline and John Jr. are joined by their parents and Major Gray.
- 190'- The Black Watch regiment performs. Camera follows performance with occasional cuts to the audience spotting Joan Kennedy and her children and Pat Lawford.
- 479'- President and his family applaud the performance.
- 500'- Long shot of the South Lawn.
- 503'- End action.